

Revised: September 2025

1. AIR FARE

POLICY OBJECTIVE: To provide the employees with an air travel facility depending on their hierarchical standing in the organization.

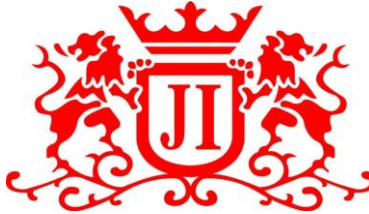

Conditions:

An employee will be entitled to ticket fares under one or more of the following situations:

- At the time of joining the organization as a new employee if outside UAE.
- At the time of separation from the organization if exiting UAE.
- At the time of Contractual Leave.

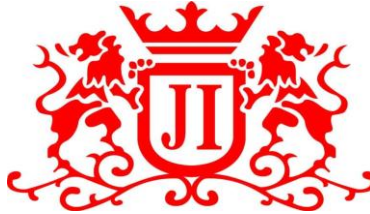

1.1. AT THE TIME OF JOINING THE ORGANIZATION

1. An employee recruited from any country, outside UAE, will be required to incur the expenses towards his/her air fare to Dubai, and the same can be claimed from the company upon arrival in Dubai.
2. This policy does not apply to employees who are hired locally and will not be paid or reimbursed for their ticket.
3. On commencement of employment with Jacky's, the new employee should hand over the invoice for the ticket on which he/she has travelled to the HR Department. The organization will reimburse up to AED 650 against this invoice to employees.
4. An employee recruited in the UAE will be required to incur the expenses towards travelling out and into Dubai. However, if the employee comes on an employment visa, then the company will pay the maximum of AED 650 towards air fare expenses incurred by the employee towards the cost of the air travel from the nearest international airport to Dubai. The company will not pay any other charges like excess baggage, taxi fare, or rail fares.

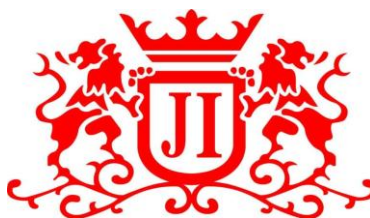

1.2. AT THE TIME OF SEPARATION FROM THE ORGANIZATION

1. The organization will pay or arrange air tickets, to separating employees from the place of posting to the employee's home country only if their employment has been terminated by the organization. This will be applicable to a spouse and two children in the case of those employees where the employment terms allow for ticket allowances.
2. The organization will also pay the air fare only from the place of posting to the nearest airport of their respective home country in the case of those employees separating from the organization on the expiry of the contract provided the notice period as per the Contract.
3. All employees separating from the organization, irrespective of the reasons for such separations, will pay for their own air fare out of Dubai other than points mentioned above.
4. If the organization organizes the ticket for the employee at the time of their separation, then the employee will not be entitled to the air fare amount.
5. In the case if an employee wants to separate from the organization upon completion of their contract, then either air passage or one way exit Air Ticket to their home country will be given.

It is very clearly understood that:

- a. If the employee wishes to travel to a destination other than the nearest international airport of his/her home country, the difference in air fare will be borne by the employee.
- b. If the employee after separation wishes to travel to another country other than country of origin the entitled air fare will be paid in cash.
- c. Eligible employees will claim air fare for spouses and children only if they reside with the employee in the UAE. The airfare for a maximum of two children up to 18 years of age will be paid for by the Company. The only admissible exception will be in those cases where the children reside in boarding schools outside the UAE on account of their studies there. This policy refers to employees whose employment terms specify such allowances.
- d. If the spouse and / or children of the Managers are working and are entitled to air fares from their respective employers, the Manager will not be entitled to air fares for such a working spouse or children. In the event, the spouse or children are not entitled for air fare from their respective employers, then the concerned manager should furnish communication from the spouse's and /or children's employers that no such facility is provided by them to the spouse and /or children. (The contact details of the organization should be furnished in the communication, should HR need to cross – verify the information provided).

1.3 AT THE TIME OF CONTRACTUAL LEAVE

Contractual Leave may be availed by the employees as subject to the approval of his/her immediate Head (Refer for more details on Contractual Leave policy). However, the Air Fare will be paid automatically along with the salary once eligible only which is based on the employment terms as mentioned in the contract, such as on completion of 24 months.

E.g.: - Incase an employee join on the 15th of Sept 2020 he would be able to receive the Airfare along with the salary for the month of October 2022. The air passage encashment request form is invalid effective 1st February 2024 and if any employee is eligible for air passage, the HR department will process it automatically with their monthly salary.
