EARNING COMPENSATORY -Off.

In the case of retail/warehouse staff a maximum of 2 days will be paid as overtime once approved by the HOD and HR department. The remaining will be settled through Comp off.
2. This policy applies to non-managerial office employees and all retail/warehouse employees only. Compensatory offs are only granted if the employees submit a written document to the reporting manager to discharge some duty hours/days as comp offs. The HOD must submit the same written approved document to the HR Department.
3. The organization reviews the compensatory-off request by matching it with the overtime information available with HR Department within the stipulated time.
4. Eligibility is contingent upon meeting the full-time employment status as defined by the company, and employees in these teams must adhere to all CO policy guidelines.

5. Employees who wish to avail themselves of the comp off or overtime must present the truthful details of their extra work done to their reporting manager, HOD and HR department before the 20th of every month. If work is done after the 20th of each month, then it must be submitted before 20th of next month. If details are not submitted on time, then request will be disqualified to avail the same.
6. The leave must be taken within 30 days from the date of eligibility otherwise it will be forfeited. However, it cannot be combined with any other leaves.
7. No compensatory off will be granted for attending the conference or seminar. When an employee takes a leave for the conference it will be taken as leave.
8. Office Employees involved in Stock take/Audit purpose will be eligible for half day comp off if worked till 3am and full day comp off if worked additional hours after 3am. Use of biometric attendance (In and out) is mandatory if overtime work is done at Jacky's premises.
9. If an office employee who regularly works only 5 days a week, has worked up to 12 hours excess in a month then no overtime/comp off to be given as it will be well within minimum 48 hours working hours required by MOHRE – UAE. This includes any sales team member who travels on a business trip one weekend during a month (Including flights and attending meetings with clients or to attend trainings) and work done during the daytime for any purpose such as exhibitions. Time spent on travel will not be considered to be part of working on a holiday as on the travel the working hours will not be the same as while on full-time duty at our premises.
10. No comp off will be granted if extra work is done voluntarily (without instructions of HOD/HR Department). The employee cannot decide to work on a holiday and then seek compensatory off. Furthermore, no comp off/overtime will be granted if the work done is already covered in any other agreement with the company such as fixed overtime (for certain employees) which covers working on Saturdays or working up to 10pm on weekdays (Monday to Saturday) etc. or if employee is part of a team which requires attending issues on emergency basis such as IT/ BPS/HR Team etc.

12. Upon separation for any reason, all employee's unused compensatory off credit will be forfeited. Compensatory off is designed to permit rest for eligible employees for the added burden of having to work beyond their regularly scheduled hours. Thus, under no circumstances will payment be made in lieu of leave being taken, either during employment or at or after separation.

This policy supersedes all other comp off policies or practices relating to the accrual or use of compensatory off time. This policy does not alter the basis upon which anyone is employed by Jacky's Group. Jacky's management will interpret, apply, and construe this policy in its sole discretion.
